A GENERAL THEORY OF DESIRE

by Dick Bentley

A pregnant teenage girl is stranded on the top of the World's Biggest Crucifix (a place that actually exists in Indian River, Michigan) and, alone with God, she confesses her sins and makes a few suggestions on how he could improve his performance. A divorced couple meets in a singles bar. A mother tries to convince a school principal that her four year old is "gifted." Two executives of an investment firm decide to conduct a love affair for profit, while electronically robbing all Americans of their identities. These and other captivating stories, plus a diverse collection of poems, provide a mesmerizing literary feast!
